Administrator=Webmaster (has full permission) - can be more than one!

EC-Member Member of the Executive Committee

C-P-Member Member of a Committee

>   • Note: Currently no extra permissions are envisioned for the chairpersons of committees/projects

VIP Important person somewhat "belonging" zu IFSR although not in an official position 'at the moment'. Typically past-presidents of Member societies etc. They could also be important representatives of other societies. They might be given more permissions than ('simple') registered visitors.

3 Categories of Web-Pages

Categorisation is useful for logical understanding and has no immediate effects on the behaviour of the Website.

IFSR-public contains stable info on organisation etc. and pointers to other pages. Modification is strongly controlled, reading is generally permitted

IFSR-announce contains shortlived info on events, related to the IFSR. Modification permitted for a wide number of plersons, little control, reading generally permitted

IFSR-Outreach These are pages where sister organisations etc. may announce their events, projects etc.

IFSR-EC restricted access! It is confidential to the EC. Contains info related to the operation of the EC, sensitive information, info not-ready for publication etc.

IFSR-Board restricted access! Access only to a limited set of priviledged persons. Contains details of IFSR operations not designed for the general public, e.g. budget information, strategies, evaluations.

IFSR-C-P restricted access! Pages of a specific committee or project.

4 Specific Web-Pages

$\Longrightarrow$ This section is not up-to-date

In this secction we list the actually planned web pages in a logical order. They will be assigned to categories (section 3) and are marked by $\ll$ ... $\gg$. We assume that specific material (e.g. web pages of member societies, detailed up-to-date information of the journal will be maintained outside of the IFSR-web-site.
